"Enoch Arden" Dramatized. On Monday night Mr. Newton Beers, the well-known actor, will give to the public his lyric and scenic production of Tennyson's master poem. Mr. Beers has gone to an enormous expense in the production of this grand musical drama, and it is said by the press in general, and especially by the New Orleans journals, that his "Enoch Arden" surpasses the expectations of those who witnessed the play. The scenery, consisting of fifteen magnificent views, is said to be the finest ever staged. Quaint Cornish dances and delightful old Cornish airs are interspersed throughout the play, making it altogether a most enjoyable entertainment.

Married at Taylorville.
Charles F. Shilling, the popular east end druggist, was joined in wedlock this morning at 9 o'clock to Miss Lucie Shaw, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. V. Shaw, at the home of the bride's parents in Taylorville. The couple passed through the city this morning at 11 o'clock en route to Grand Rapids and other points in Michigan, on their bridal tour. They will visit Chicago, and after a short stay in that city, will return to Decatur and be "at home" to their friends at 904 North Main street after May 1st. The groom recently built himself a handsome cottage at the above number, and has furnished it throughout, everything being in readiness to commence house-keeping upon their return. The BARNESMAN joins with their many friends in extending its best wishes and hoping that they may enjoy long life and happiness.

A Vain Search.
Coroner Bendure is in receipt of a letter of inquiry from John Kreiser, of 403 Sutter street, San Francisco, Cal., who seeks to learn the particulars of the death of one Ignaz August Berger, who met a violent death some time in the year 1885. The writer had been led to believe that a man named Berger had died near Decatur, and that an inquest had been held on the body. The records fail to show that an inquest had been held on the body of any man of that name in this county, either in 1885 or any other year. Coroner Bendure searched the records today. It is noted in the letter that Berger had on his person a quantity of Austrian Lottery Bonds, and Mr. Kreiser offers to pay five dollars for all the papers found in possession of the deceased. It is barely possible that the man died in some other county in Central Illinois.

Bought 17,000 Acres.
Mr. Bert Emerson, of Danville, son of the late Judge Emerson, is a guest at the St. Nicholas. Attorney Emerson has but lately returned from a stay of two months in Kentucky and Tennessee, whither he went on a mission involving the expenditure of $30,000 or $40,000 for Chicago parties. He went south to buy timber land along the Green river, and before he left he had secured 17,000 acres of land growing the finest oak, pine and hickory timber to be seen anywhere in the south. The Chicago owners will send hundreds of men south and out the timber, to be placed on the market in the shape of manufactured articles. Mr. Emerson related many interesting incidents and personal experiences of his stay in the south. He succeeded where other shrewd land buyers had failed. The people are peculiarly social, and democrats are chummy. He was glad to get out of Kentucky and into Tennessee, where he soon discovered in the sections he visited that the republicans were not wholly in the minority. Some of the land he bought commanded $250 an acre.

In the Chicago Saturday Evening Herald appears a complimentary reference to a largely attended literary and musical reception at the Home Club, given to members of the club and friends Miss Mary Donnelly and her pupils were on the programme. A bright company of people assumed various characters. The Herald says: "Mr. Giles R. Warren, (of Decatur), is justly entitled to interpret Charles Levesque; his face is his fortune if he uses it rightly. He kept the audience in a merry mood long after he left the stage."

At a general meeting of members of the Decatur Young Men's Christian Association held last evening, a new constitution and by-laws were adopted, such as govern the larger associations throughout the country. A vacancy on the board of directors was filled by the election of J. A. Dawson, and J. Bering Barrows was elected a member of the board from the Episcopal church. Immediate action will be taken by the board to push the work of the organization and make it what it has never been before.

DECATUR now has nine mail carriers and of course the daily appointees, like unto all other carriers on guard, is a Democrat. His name is Daniel O. Kin-kaid, who Postmaster Jack informs us has been on the substitute list for some time. There ought to be no complaint against prompt delivery of mail matter with such a force.

Trouble on the Short Line.

The cars on the Decatur Short Line electric railway were not running this morning, because of the breakdown of the remaining dynamo at the power house this morning. The first dynamo weakened yesterday and to-day the other gave out. Manager Martin states that the Detroit people have failed to send him duplicate dynamo, and in consequence he is left without power to run the cars.

The trouble appears to be with the commutators, and by request Mr. Burke, the electrician for the gas company, was sent to put the dynamo in proper shape. Fred Fisk is the regular electrician for the Short Line. He and Manager Martin had some trouble and Mr. Fisk was discharged Monday morning. It took two days for the dynamo to get out of kilter. This forenoon Mr. Fisk got a telegram from Detroit to return to work at once. He promises to have the cars running at five o'clock this afternoon.

Yours,

In Lincoln's Memory.

Major R. B. Hoover, president of the Lincoln Memorial League, is making extensive preparations for the exercises to be held at Springfield on Monday, April 23, at the Lincoln monument, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his death. R., Sons of Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps, and the North American Turnerbund will be there in great numbers to take part in the exercises. The street parade and exercises will be held directly after noon, when all trains have arrived, and will conclude in time to let the neighboring friends take the evening train home. Low excursion rates have been secured on the railroads. The Washington, leading from this point to Springfield, has arranged to sell round trip tickets at one and one-third fare on April 16, good returning April 16. ### THE ST. ANDREW RECEPTION.

Christian Young Men Meet Friends at the J. J. Peddecord Residence.

A brilliant and highly enjoyable reception was held last night from 8 to 11 o'clock at the commodious residence of Hon. J. J. Peddecord, given by Mrs. J. H. Vennigerholz to Rev. Montgomery M. Goodwin and the members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, of St. John's church, who extended invitations to the members and friends of the Episcopal church to be present. The society of St. Andrew now numbers 18 young gentlemen who are banded together "for the spread of Christ's kingdom among young men," and their influence is already felt in the church work. The symbol of the order is a neat red cross.

The reception was attended by nearly 150 people and the handsome parlors and reception rooms, which were fragrant with flowers from the L. Burrows conservatory, were filled with a congenial company. Mrs. Vennigerholz, who received everybody with charming grace, was assisted in doing the honors by Mrs. R. K. Duffee, Mrs. J. F. Roach, Mrs. Demas Barrackman, Mrs. R. W. Chilson and Mrs. Brandan, and all were made personally acquainted with the St. Andrew Brotherhood. The pretty souvenirs of the reception were beautiful porcelain Easter eggs, bearing the red cross of the society, and hand-painted in delicate colors, the tasteful work of Mrs. Albert Barnes and Mrs. V. G. Hatch. To each egg was attached a ribbon. From 8:30 to 11 delicious refreshments were served in the dining room.

During the evening the society and guests were favored with charming literary and musical selections. Miss Effie Brown, of the Musical College faculty, who is a gifted elocutionist, gave the recitation "Papa's Letter," and also a piano solo. Mr. Patterson and Mr. Hodgins, members of the society, gave vocal solos, and Miss Gertrude Griswold, with Miss Burrows as accompanist, favored the privileged company with two vocal solos which were enthusiastically applauded.

These officers and members of the St. Andrew Brotherhood, St. John's Chapter No. 881, are: Rev. Montgomery M. Goodwin, director; Bering Burrows, treasurer; W. Press. Waggoner, secretary; E. P. Bishop, B. F. Bobb, D. A. Barrackman, R. W. Chilson, Will Denton, S. Fisher, Clem Erisman, F. Hodgins, C. T. Haigh, C. M. R. Keeley, George E. Moeller, C. H. Millsap, A. C. Rao, Prof. Oot Bull.

The Fire Flood Near Blue Mound.

A large barn at the Ed. Goffinet farm, one mile south of Blue Mound, burned down about 2 o'clock this morning, burning also eight head of horses and broad mares for Samuel Langdon, tenant, together with all of his harness, wagons, farming implements and considerable feed which was stored in the barn. They had been pressing hay near the barn yesterday and the supposition is that the fire started from the engine, through the men who were running the engine, who that before leaving they put all the fire out and wet the ground thoroughly for a considerable distance around the engine. About twenty neighbors gathered at the scene as soon as the fire was discovered, and by hard work fighting the fire, being also favored by the wind, succeeded in saving a large barn which stood sixty feet distant, from burning, though it was scorched considerably. There were in the barn that was saved about forty tons of hay, and several head of cattle and cattle, and had it burned Mr. Langdon would have been ruined. As it is his loss is not less than $1500, on which there was no insurance. The loss on the barn is about $1000.

Washout at Wabash, Ind.

Wabash passenger train No. 43, which was due here at 3:50 a. m., did not arrive until 12:40 p. m. The delay was caused by a washout of a bridge near Wabash, Ind. The report that there was a dangerous wreck near Lafayette and that the engineer was killed proves to be a hoax.

Mr. Reed in Comedy.

Mr. Roland Reed, always a favorite here, will present his great success, "The Woman Hater," at the Grand opera house Friday night, which he has been presenting to crowded houses throughout the country. Mr. Reed needs no introduction, for he is well and favorably known here, and comes, it is said, with an excellent supporting company. The play is an oceanic comedy, full of amusing complications and situations. There is a sparkle, a crispness of dialogue and a sprightliness of humor in the piece that makes it thoroughly enjoyable. Its action takes place in the upper circles of society, its diction is that of refinement and education, with a dash of wit and humor, and its plot is a masterpiece of construction. It is replete with bright and original lines, while its incidents are laughable and its motives flavor of the old comedies.

To the Sroo Buyers of Decatur and Vicinity.

We are continuing to retail goods at wholesale prices. Our stock is all new, fresh and clean, and we are receiving new goods daily. We have incurred the enmity of every shoe dealer in Decatur simply because we have made prices so low that they cannot compete with which sell the goods. We have had due regard for the buyer's interests, and have been able steadily to undersell every competitor. We own our goods cheaper and can always sell them cheaper. Our customers are here to do business, not for pleasure or recreation, and we propose this year to fight harder than ever for increased trade. We have the prices that knock for $1, which beats anything in Illinois. Mark all shoes in Congress at $2, unapproached anywhere for the money, and unapproached in Decatur or central Illinois. This will serve as something of an index to the low prices which we offer on anything in our stock. Call and see for yourself. The Ferriss & Laphan Shoe Store, No. 148 East Main street. March 27-d4wtf
